

RDA Europe grants for experts, early careers and organisations shaping the EU and international research data sharing landscape

RDA is a global community-based organisation whose mission is to build the social and technical infrastructure to enable the open sharing of data. To increase the European contribution and uptake of RDA results across all scientific domains and types of organisations, RDA Europe 4.0 is offering financial support to individuals and organisations.

Opportunities in Europe: the RDA Europe 4.0 grants

RDA Europe 4.0 project, the European plug-in to the Research Data Alliance (RDA), provides funding for a broad range of grants, covering:

- » Early Career Programme (for individuals)
